

KATE + FRANK

9.14.14

Kate Snider and Frank Henry met through mutual friends and had dated for six years when he took her out to lunch on a run-of-the-mill Wednesday and surprised her with a proposal and two tickets to Las Vegas. With the bride's bag conveniently packed by her sister beforehand, the couple was able to get to the airport just in time for their departure, and enjoyed an "engagement-moon" in one of Kate's favorite cities!

The bride grew up daydreaming about a wedding reception at the Greensboro Country Club, so when it came time to book a venue, the choice was easy. The couple selected a classic white and blush palette to enhance the venue's elegant ambiance. The fourteen bridesmaids wore long, lace embellished gowns in nude blush, a beautiful chic complement next to Kate's couture gown from Nitsa's Apparel.

With the help of Grace Beason of Grace Leisure Events, they tastefully glitzed up the club into a true celebratory atmosphere with a variety of specialty lighting, from candles and uplights to a custom canopy of twinkle lights. The couple gave Grace kudos for helping them at every step of the way, and assembling the perfect team of wedding vendors to create the decor they had imagined.

One of the special items on Kate's wish list was a confetti blast to pick up the party excitement. Not knowing if ThemeWorks had the equipment to pull it off, it was a fabulous surprise when midway through the dance party, a confetti cannon erupted and showered the dance floor!

The bride shared her two-cents on the right wedding attitude, "We wanted our guests to feel special, but we also wanted to enjoy our wedding day," she said. After making their rounds, this happy-go-lucky duo spent the entire evening dancing. Her other piece of advice? Hire a videographer!

WEDDING CONSULTANT
Grace Leisure Events

CEREMONY

Holy Trinity Episcopal Church

PHOTOGRAPHER

Meredith Perdue Photography

BRIDAL GOWN Christos from

Nitsa's Apparel

BRIDESMAIDS' DRESSES

Lela Rose from Bella Bridesmaids

MEN'S FORMALWEAR

men wore their own tuxedos

PRE-WEDDING ENTERTAINMENT

FOR BRIDESMAIDS a cappella group,

The Vineyard Sound

RECEPTION MUSIC

The Atlanta Showstoppers

SPECIALTY RENTALS ThemeWorks